LEE FAYE MACK, self described as advisor to the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, BPP Chapter, is employed as Neighborhood Coordinator in the Planned Variations Section of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Model Cities Program. MACK was appointed to this position by the mayor of Winston-Salem. The Model Cities Program is Federally funded; however, the exact amount of Federal funds available in the Winston-Salem, N.C., area is unknown at the present time. Mrs. MACK does not hold a decision-making position regarding how funds are spent within the program, and there is no indication at this time of BPP efforts to subvert the activities of the Model Cities Program or to control its funds.

SPEECHES

The Winston-Salem BPP Chapter sponsored a Survival Day Rally on 12/17/72 at Winston-Salem, North Carolina. LARRY LITTLE, Head of the BPP, spoke to a crowd of approximately 700 persons about the opposition of the black people to the seemingly growing instances when confrontations with police have resulted. LITTLE spoke of oppression and obvious, intentional harassment by the local police agencies. LITTLE stated that the BPP has come a long way from guns to shoes and he expects greater things in the days to come. LITTLE further advised that members of the BPP would be running for local office in the Winston-Salem, N.C., area and urged those assembled to assist in the party's efforts to obtain power for the people.

The Survival Day Rally sponsored by the Winston-Salem BPP held on 12/17/72, was the principal activity of the party during the month of December, 1972. The rally was held at Winston-Salem, N.C., and was attended by approximately 700 persons, a turn out well above the anticipated figure. As a result, the rally was very disorganized. Various items of clothing were given away free, approximately 250 sickle cell anemia shots were given and almost 100 persons were registered to vote. Sources reported how the party gave away almost everything it had at the rally and is now broke again and in dire need of funds. At the conclusion of the rally, a brief slide show was presented by the Panthers during which numerous photographs of the Winston-Salem area comparing the downtown renewal program of a new Federal Building, new city hall, new bank building, etc., against the background of the decaying ghetto. The Panthers attempted to dramatize the point that the ruling class is spending all of the money for the ruling class and nothing for the people who really need help.

As previously indicated, JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., returned to Winston-Salem, N.C., from Oakland, California, sometime during the middle of December, 1972. CORNELL, who has the title of Captain of Defense with the Winston-Salem Panthers, was assisting the BPP in Oakland with the political campaign in that city.

BPP member RANDOLPH JENNINGS remains in North Carolina State Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, following his conviction on assault charges. JENNINGS is a member of the "High Point 3", three BPP members from High Point, North Carolina, who were convicted on this same charge. The other two Panthers have been released on appeal bond. The Winston-Salem Chapter is continuing in its efforts to raise enough money to cover JENNINGS' bond.

Sources report that the BPP plans to continue its Survival Day Program in the future as a means of winning over the FULLER is charged with larceny and two counts of assault on an officer and LITTLE and CORNELL are charged with being accessories after the fact of a felony.

On 1/3/73, Solicitor FRANK J. YEAGER, Forsyth County Prosecutor's Office, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, advised that the trial of the above three BPP members has again been postponed until 3/19/73. Reason for the postponement is the short term of court in January, 1973, and the anticipated lengthy trial of the above three BPP members.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)
SPONSORED SURVIVAL DAY PROGRAM
WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA
DECEMBER 17, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTERS - BLACK PANTHER PARTY

On December 15, 1972, CE T-1 advised that the Black Panther Party (BPP), Winston-Salem, North Carolina, plans to hold a Community Survival Day Program to be held from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the North Elementary School located one block from Black Panther Party Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on December 17, 1972. CE T-1 stated that at the present time there are no planned speakers scheduled for this event and that party members will just circulate within the crowd gathered in hopes of uniting the people behind the Black Panther Party.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

CE T-1 stated that the BPP intends to give away free food and clothing at this Survival Day Program and also plans to test for sickle cell anemia and possibly provide for voter registration.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)
SPONSORED SURVIVAL DAY PROGRAM
DECEMBER 17, 1972

On December 18, 1972, CE T-1 advised that the Black Panther Party sponsored Survival Day Program was held as scheduled on December 17, 1972, at the North Elementary School in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. CE T-1 stated that the Survival Day Program was held from approximately 3:00 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. CE T-1 stated that there was an estimated crowd of approximately 700 in attendance at this program well above the anticipated number. In view of the large crowd in attendance, the BPP members were completely disorganized and ill-equipped to handle the large crowd.

CE T-1 stated that approximately $2600 worth of merchandise was given away during the Survival Day Program including shoes, pants, pajamas, underwear, coats for children, boots, and other necessary items for the winter months ahead. CE T-1 stated that these items were obtained from a discount warehouse; however, the exact location is not known at this time.

ISAIAH CARROLL, a BPP member, was in charge of purchasing the items.

CE T-1 stated that 250 sickle cell anemia shots were given during the Survival Day Program and 26 people were registered to vote.

CE T-1 stated that in view of the crowd assembled, LARRY LITTLE, head of the North Carolina Chapter of the B.P., determined that it was an excellent opportunity to speak to the community and hurriedly put together a brief program which was headed by HAMEL LEE JACK, a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP. JACK introduced the following speakers:

1. LARRY LITTLE, head of the North Carolina Chapter of the B.P. LITTLE talked about the oppression of black people to the seemingly growing instances when confrontations with police have resulted. LITTLE spoke of depression and obvious and intentional harassment by the local police agencies. LITTLE stated that the Black Panther Party has come a long way from guns to shoes and he expects greater things in the days to come. LITTLE further advised that

BLACK ANTHEM PARTY (BAP)
S. INSURED SURVIVAL DAY PROGRAM
WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

members of the BPP would be running for local office in the Winston-Salem area and urged those assembled to assist in their efforts to obtain power for the people.

2. ISAAH CARDWELL, member of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP, presented a brief slide show which he had earlier planned to present to the Survival Day Program and had been canceled by LARRY LITTLE. ISAAH CARDWELL presented numerous photographs of the Winston-Salem area showing the downtown renewal program of a new Federal Building, new City Hall, new Bank Building, etc., against the background of the decaying ghetto. CARDWELL attempted to dramatize the point that the ruling class was spending all of the money for the ruling class and nothing for the people who really need help.

CE T-1 stated that ISAAH CARDWELL's presentation to the people was well received and the speech by LARRY LITTLE was not appreciated by some of those present as LITTLE still has the stigma of the old BPP which carried guns instead of giving away shoes.

CE T-1 stated that LARRY LITTLE commented after the conclusion of the Survival Day Program that he felt it was most successful and that they would certainly plan similar programs in the future as the best way to win the people is to give them what they need.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

On December 26, 1972, CE T-1 advised that LEE FAYE MACK is employed as a neighborhood coordinator in the Planned Variations Section of the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Model Cities Program. Mrs. MACK's position with this program entails handling complaints in the northeast section of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, which section is composed of a population that is approximately 98 percent Negro. Mrs. MACK works at the Citizens Participation Agency Office, 1500 English Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina; and this office is part of the Model Cities Program. T-1 advised that Mrs. MACK was appointed to this position by the mayor of Winston-Salem and is one of ten such coordinators located within the Model Cities Program in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. T-1 advised that the Model Cities Program is federally funded; however, the exact amount of federal funds available for the Winston-Salem area is unknown. Mrs. MACK does not hold a decision-making position regarding how funds are spent within the program; however, she does have influence in regard to the direction of some of the program's activities in Winston-Salem. T-1 stated that Mrs. MACK's position with the Model Cities Program calls for her to do some traveling on behalf of the City of Winston-Salem, and any expenses incurred are paid for by the Model Cities Program.

On December 26, 1972, CE T-2 advised that LEE FAYE MACK is a Negro female, approximately forty years of age, who is self-described as Advisor to the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Black Panther Party (BPP) chapter.

During the month of 11/72, the Winston-Salem, N. C., BPP Chapter members continued to prepare for the upcoming Survival Day rally, now to be held on 12/10/72 instead of 12/17/72 as previously reported. The rally is to be held in the Happy Hills section of Winston-Salem, a predominantly Negro populated area of town. Sources report that the BPP has received $1500 in pledges and has on hand $2600 in cash, to be used for the purchase of clothing and sickle cell anemia shots, which items are to be distributed at the rally. No speakers have been scheduled for the rally, at which, in addition to the items mentioned above, food will be given away free. The Panthers still anticipate distributing 5,000 bags of groceries with a turkey in every bag. No violence is planned for the rally.

The free clothing and free pest control programs continue to function on a very limited basis. The free breakfast for children program is not operational due to a lack of food, and the George Jackson Liberation School has ceased operations.

As previously indicated, JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., remains in Oakland, Calif., helping out with the political campaign in that city. Three other Winston-Salem BPP members also remain in Oakland, Calif., for training.

BPP member RANDOLPH JENNINGS remains in N. C. State Prison, Raleigh, N. C., following his conviction on assault charges. JENNINGS is a member of the so called "High Point 3," three BPP members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on

The BPP has never settled its past due account with the telephone company, and as a result the BPP members utilize a pay telephone which has been installed at the headquarters building.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During November, 1972, the party ordered or received an estimated 2,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL MC DONALD, Distribution Manager. [REDACTED] during 11/72, and sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

The estimated 2,000 copies of the BPP newspaper represents a substantial reduction in the number of papers sold during November as compared with October's sale. This reduction could logically be attributed to the fact that the Panther members were busy soliciting donations from local businessmen for their upcoming December Survival Day Rally. The Panther members continue their policy of traveling to various cities throughout the State of North Carolina to sell their papers.

Source reported no further information concerning the Winston-Salem BPP Chapter being named beneficiary of a $7,000 insurance policy on one of its former members, JOSEPH E. WADDELL. The chapter members received word on 10/25/72 that the party had been named the beneficiary of this policy.

During November, 1972, the Panther members continued in their efforts of soliciting food for the Survival Day Rally being planned for 12/72. The date for this rally has again been changed and is now scheduled for 12/17/72, the original date.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

All of the BPP members who were holding full or part-time jobs, prior to December's Survival Day Rally, joined the ranks of the unemployed again during November or either quit or were fired from their jobs. LARRY LITTLE, Head of the BPP Chapter, had originally ordered that all Panthers must be employed in order for enough money to be on hand to make the Survival Day Rally a success.

HAZEL MACK is handling the finances for the chapter. [REDACTED] and all financial transactions are handled in cash or money orders.

No estimate could be made of unsold papers or the personal expenses of the members, however, sources report that newspaper sales remain far short of what the party would like them to be. Sales of the BPP newspaper fell off considerably during November as the Panthers were concentrating on obtaining donations from local businessmen. Donations for the upcoming December Survival Day Rally remain good. The party continues to have numerous outstanding unpaid bills and is still behind in its mortgage rental payments on its headquarters building at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C.; however, source reported that the owner of the BPP headquarters building is not pressuring the Panthers for payment of its past due mortgage rental payments.

Re Charlotte teletype to the Bureau 11/17/72, advising among other things that on 1/12/71, a delivery truck for Chatham Food Co., Siler City, N. C., was reported stolen in Winston-Salem, N. C. The driver reported to Police Officers that he had located the truck parked in front of BPP Headquarters, but when he went to this house he was chased away at gunpoint. When Police arrived to investigate, shots were fired from a window. Officers returned the fire for 45 seconds until the COP ordered a cease fire. A search warrant was then obtained and 20 cases of meat were recovered from the house. Also, a 12 gauge shotgun, two military type rifles, and 150 rounds of ammunition, were confiscated. GRADY FULLER, a BPP member, and a juvenile were arrested at the house. FULLER was charged with larceny and two counts of assault on an officer. On 1/19/71, BPP leaders LARRY DONNELL LITTLE and JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., were arrested and charged with being an accessory after the fact of a felony. In Superior Court on 5/3/71, Attorneys for CORNELL, LITTLE and FULLER filed a motion to quash the Grand Jury indictments, alleging the process of juror selection was unconstitutional.

On 9/27/71, during trial of this case, Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG upheld this defense motion challenging the process of jury selection, and quashed the indictments. On 4/17/72, Solicitor FRANK J. YEAGER, Forsyth County Prosecutor's Office, Winston-Salem, N. C., advised that as a result of his appeal, the N. C. Supreme Court reversed the ruling of Superior Court Judge LONG and ruled that the N. C. Statutory plan for jury selection is constitutional. Mr. YEAGER stated that barring further appeal, LITTLE, CORNELL and FULLER would again be scheduled for trial on these charges. Trial was then set for 12/4/72.

On 12/4/72, Mr. YEAGER advised that the trial of the above three BPP members had been postponed until the next term of court in Winston-Salem, N. C., commencing in 1/73.

 EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau, 10/17/72.

During the month of 10/72, the BPP Chapter, Winston Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston Salem, N. C. The BPP also rents two apartments in Winston Salem, N. C., which are used as pads by BPP members. These apartments are located at 411 14th St., Winston Salem, N. C., which is one block from BPP Headquarters.

The BPP has never settled its past-due account with the telephone company, and as a result, BPP members also utilize a pay telephone at the headquarters building.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During 10/72, the party ordered or received an estimated 4,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL MC DONALD, Distribution Manager. [REDACTED] during 10/72, and sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

The estimated 4,000 copies of the BPP newspaper represent no change from the number of papers sold during the month of 9/72. The Panther members continue their policy of traveling to various cities throughout the State of North Carolina to sell their papers.

On 10/25/72, the Winston Salem BPP Chapter received word that the Panther Chapter was the beneficiary of a $7,000 insurance policy on one of its former members, JOSEPH E. WADDELL. WADDELL was a member of the Winston Salem BPP for a short time prior to his arrest for Armed Robbery in High Point, N. C. On 1/20/72, WADDELL was convicted of Armed Robbery and sentenced to 15-20 years imprisonment. WADDELL was confined to Central Prison, Raleigh, N. C., following his conviction. On 6/13/72, while confined to Central Prison, WADDELL died of a heart attack. Subsequently, the BPP attempted to make an issue of his death, contending that WADDELL was in excellent health when he entered prison and that his death was a result of the treatment he received while in prison.

During 10/72, the Panther members continued in their efforts of soliciting food for the Survival Day rally being planned for 12/72. The tentative date for the rally has been changed from 12/17/72, to 12/10/72, at Winston Salem, N. C. Sources reported that donations for the rally are on the increase and the Panther members are optimistic about attaining their goal of giving away 5,000 bags of groceries on that date. The BPP plans to advertise a turkey in every bag for the rally.

Half the price of the newspapers of $250 would be owed to the California headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a least-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase of the house.

D. OPERATIONS

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Head of the BPP Chapter, seems determined to have a successful Survival Day rally in 12/72. He has most of the party members busy soliciting donations from many of the local Winston Salem merchants; however, the previous instructions regarding a full or part time employment for all BPP members are not being complied with. Several of the members have been fired from their jobs and several others have quit, leaving the vast majority of the party members unemployed again. Reason for LITTLE's initial instructions in this regard was to have enough money available for the upcoming Survival Day rally.

HAZEL MACK is currently handling the finances for the chapter. [REDACTED] and all financial transactions are handled in cash or money orders.

No estimate could be made of unsold papers or the personal expenses of the members, however, sources report that newspaper sales are still far short of what the Party would like. The sales of the BPP newspaper remain fairly constant with little increase or decrease noted in the number of papers sold over the previous month. Donations appear to be on the increase for the 12/72, Survival Day rally. The party continues to have numerous outstanding unpaid bills and is still behind in its mortgage rental payments on its headquarters building at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston Salem, N. C.

FACTIONALISM

During October, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., BPP Chapter continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

During the month of October, 1972, public activities of the Winston-Salem, N. C., BPP Chapter remained, for all practical purposes, nil. The Chapter members are preparing for their next Survival Day Program which is tentatively scheduled for December 17, 1972, at Winston-Salem, N. C. The BPP members are anticipating giving away 5,000 bags of groceries and are planning to advertise a turkey in each bag. In preparation for the December Survival Day Rally, LARRY LITTLE, BPP Chapter leader, has instructed that all members must have full or part time jobs. The reason for this is so that enough money will be available for the December rally. It is reported that even LITTLE has obtained part time employment with a construction firm in Winston-Salem, in order to comply with his instructions.

The free clothing and free pest control programs continue to function on a limited basis. The Free Breakfast for Children Program is not operational; however, reports indicate the George Jackson Liberation School continues to operate sporadically each Saturday afternoon and is attended by approximately eight school age children, who receive free lunches prior to class.

As previously indicated, JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR. is in Oakland, California, aiding with the political campaign in that city. Three other Winston-Salem BPP members are also currently in Oakland, California, for training. The nature of this training is unknown at the present time.

BPP member RANDOLPH JENNINGS remains in North Carolina State Prison, Raleigh, N. C., following his conviction on assault charges. JENNINGS is a member of the so called "High Point 3", three Black Panther Party members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on this same charge. The other two BPP members have been released on appeal bond. The Winston-Salem Chapter is continuing in its efforts to raise enough money to cover JENNINGS bond.

No further information has been received concerning weapons or fortifications by the Winston-Salem BPP Chapter, except that rifles and pistols are stored at Panther Headquarters at 1333 Patterson Avenue, and in several other houses in close proximity to the headquarters building. This information was previously reported in September's Summary Airtel and no further information has been developed concerning the intentions of the chapter members regarding these weapons.

Source reports that the BPP wishes to continue its Survival Day Programs in the future as a means of winning over the black community. LITTLE maintains that for the BPP to be successful, it must have the support of the black community.

Character: EXTREMIST MATTERS

Synopsis: Headquarters of the North Carolina chapter of the Black Panther Party (BPP) is located at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C., and is under the leadership of LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Field Lieutenant. Information concerning pads, community activity, public appearances, BPP fortifications, finances, and travel of BPP members set out in this report. The North Carolina Supreme Court reversed Superior Court judges ruling on selection of jurors and ruled BPP leaders stand trial on charges of assault and theft of a truck load of meat. Two other BPP members released on appeal bond from North Carolina State Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina. BPP member JOSEPH E. WADDELL died of heart attack 6/13/72, North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina. Information received latter part of 9/72, that Winston-Salem, N. C., members possess rifles and pistols at BPP Headquarters and in houses in close proximity of BPP Headquarters.

DETAILS:

I. ORGANIZATIONAL AND OPERATIONAL DATA

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

A. LOCATION OF NORTH CAROLINA HEADQUARTERS

North Carolina chapter of Black Panther Party (BPP), 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

The above headquarters is located in a two story frame house situated in a predominantly black residential neighborhood. The house was purchased under a lease-purchase agreement in the name of HAZEL LEE MACK and LEE FAYE MACK with an initial down payment of $500 and monthly rent of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house at the end of 5 years. The total purchase price for the house was $8,500.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Field Lieutenant

HAZEL MAE MACK, Communications Secretary

DELORES WRIGHT, Secretary of Support Committee

RUSSELL McDONALD, Director of Distribution for North Carolina Black Panther Newspaper.

JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., who has the title of Captain of Defense, is still at Black Panther Party Headquarters in Oakland, California. Source now reports that CORNELL will remain in Oakland until sometime next year. Information previously furnished indicated that CORNELL might return to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, in the near future; however, this does not now appear to be the case.

CE 157-6171

LARRY LITTLE returned from BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California, on June 6, 1972, and immediately assumed command of the North Carolina BPP chapter. LITTLE spent approximately six months in Oakland for training.

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

During March, 1972, the BPP chapter was forced to close their location at 400A Loflin Street, High Point, North Carolina, due to lack of funds to pay the back rent. The two or three members residing in High Point were moved to BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem.

During September, the BPP moved from its apartments at 1306-A Underwood Avenue and 210 East 14th Street, both Winston-Salem, North Carolina. In place of these two apartments, the BPP is now renting two apartments in the name of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD at 411 14th Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, which is one block from BPP Headquarters.

D. COMMUNITY ACTIVITY

1. Free Programs

a. Free breakfast for children program

This program has been operated sporadically since September, 1971, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The program is operated under the direction of MARY McDONALD and feeds an average of 8 to 10 children each day when operating. This program is used as a basis for soliciting donations from local merchants and achieving local support from the community. It ceased operation at the close of school May, 1972, and has not started again since.

b. Free pest control program

This program has been in effect since January, 1972 and is administered by GRADY FULLER and RUSSELL McDONALD.

c. Free clothing program

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION
This program was launched under the direction of BPP member BEATRICE FULTON and scheduled its first distribution of free clothing on March 18, 1972. FULTON and GRADY FULLER have been contacting residents and merchants soliciting donations of new and used clothes. The program functions on a limited basis and clothing is distributed whenever it is obtained.

2. Training Programs

Periodic training sessions and educational classes are held at BPP Headquarters on Wednesday evenings.

These classes are open to prospective members as well as regular members and class discussions are usually directed by one of the officers of the chapter.

A GEORGE JACKSON Liberation School continues to operate each Saturday afternoon and is attended by approximately eight school age children who receive free lunches prior to class.

E. PUBLIC APPEARANCES

1. July 22, 1972, demonstration, Capital grounds, Raleigh, North Carolina.

On July 22, 1972, between 75 and 100 black persons commenced a march from the campus of Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina, a predominantly black school. The march began at approximately 10 A.M., and in accordance with their parade permit to demonstrate, the demonstrators marched from Shaw University to the North Carolina State Capitol Building, a distance of five blocks. A speakers platform with a microphone had been previously set up on the capitol grounds for use by the demonstrators. NELSON LEE MALLOY, JR. and Mrs. LEE FAYE MACK, members of the BPP from Winston-Salem, North Carolina, were two of the five speakers who addressed the people in attendance at the demonstration and each talked about the inequities and injustices against black inmates throughout the North Carolina Prison System. They called for the release of all black prisoners and advocated black unity.

2. Community Survival Rally, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, July 30, 1972

The BPP held a rally at the Kimberly Housing Project in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, at approximately 5 PM on July 30, 1972. There were approximately 2,000 people in attendance at the rally and the BPP gave away about 1,000 bags of groceries which had been previously solicited from local merchants. During the course of the rally BPP members gave free sickle cell anemia tests to approximately 800 people and approximately 500 persons were registered to vote.

During the rally it was announced that those persons in attendance could obtain free children's tennis shoes at BPP headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, under the BPP's free clothing program.

HAZEL MAE MACK, an officer of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party, acted as emcee for this affair and introduced the following speakers:

1. LARRY LITTLE, head of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP. LITTLE talked about the oppression of black people and called for the unity of all blacks. He spoke of the death of JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, a BPP member who recently died in North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina. LITTLE told the assembled group that the BPP was now a political organization and that he intends to run for an unidentified public office in the future.

2. Reverend MOSES SMALL, pastor of a local Baptist Church and a candidate for Winston-Salem City-County School Board. Reverend SMALL compared the BPP's efforts in feeding the poor to that of Jesus feeding the multitudes. He talked about the new image of the BPP and how the BPP was now a political organization.

3. Mrs. LEE FAYE MACK, a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party. Mrs. MACK informed the assembled group that the BPP was no longer a militant group and had great plans to increase their political activity, including BPP members running for various political offices.

4. Mrs. RHUDINE COVINGTON, President of the Welfare Rights Organization in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Mrs. COVINGTON talked about the welfare problems of poor blacks and the inequities in the welfare system. Mrs. COVINGTON praised the BPP for their efforts to help poor black people.

SPEAKER AT RALLY OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

5. CHARLES ZOLLICOFFER who identified himself as a student at Winston-Salem State University, which is a predominantly black university located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. ZOLLICOFFER talked about the BPP and the need for better education which would help the BPP in solving problems facing black people.

None of the above speakers made any comments regarding confrontations with the police and followed the opening line of LARRY LITTLE about working within the political system. There were no weapons in evidence among the BPP members present and the gathering was very peaceful. The crowd dispersed at approximately 8 PM after the supply of free food had been exhausted.

3. Community Survival Rally, Winston-Salem,
North Carolina, August 27, 1972

The BPP held a Community Survival Rally on August 27, 1972, commencing at 5 P.M. and lasting until approximately 8:30 P.M. The party gave away approximately 100 bags of groceries and provided free tests for sickle cell anemia and facilities for voter registration. The rally was attended by approximately 100 to 200 Winston-Salem community residents.

LARRY LITTLE spoke to the area residents urging support of the BPP programs and for revival of the innercity and the needs of the black people to be proud of their black heritage. LITTLE was the only speaker at the August 27, 1972, rally.

F. APPEAL COURT REVERSAL IN TRIAL OF BPP
LEADERS AND APPEAL BOND FOR TWO BPP MEMBERS

Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG, Forsyth County Superior Court, granted motions of defense attorneys and quashed outstanding indictments against BPP leaders LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER. Judge LONG's ruling resulted from defense's claim that jury lists for Forsyth County jury members were improperly drawn as they did not contain either eighteen-year olds or an appropriate percentage of blacks.

Judge LONG's ruling barred scheduled trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER, who had been indicted on charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck and the subsequent shootout with police officers at BPP Headquarters at the time of their arrests. GRADY FULLER was indicted on two counts of assault on police officers and one count of theft of the truck load of meat. LARRY LITTLE and JULIUS CORNELL were each charged with being an accessory after the fact of the meat theft.

On April 17, 1972, Solicitor FRANK J. YEAGER, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, advised that as a result of his appeal the North Carolina Supreme Court reversed Superior Court Judge LONG's ruling and ruled that the North Carolina statutory plan for selection and drawing of jurors is constitutional and provides a jury system free of discrimination. Mr. YEAGER stated barring further appeal, LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER would again be scheduled for trial on the previous charges. Mr. YEAGER pointed out, however, he anticipates defense attorneys for the three BPP members will appeal ruling to the United States Supreme Court. New trial date for the three BPP members has not been fixed as yet.

During September, 1972, a second member of the "High Point 3", three members of the BPP from High Point, North Carolina, who were convicted on assault charges, was released on appeal bond from North Carolina State Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina. LARRY MEDLEY joined BRADFORD LILLEY in obtaining his temporary freedom by posting bond pending appeal of the charges against him. RANDOLPH JENNINGS is the third member who remains in North Carolina State Prison.

G. DEATH OF BPP MEMBER JOSEPH E. WADDELL

On June 19, 1972, Mr. [REDACTED] North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, advised JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, Negro male, born May 27, 1950, Forsyth County, North Carolina, FBI Number 425-683 H, died June 13, 1972 in Central Prison. Dr. R. PAGE HUDSON, Chief Medical Examiner for the State of North Carolina, advised that WADDELL apparently died of severe heart disease. WADDELL's body was moved from Central Prison to Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh, North Carolina, where an autopsy was performed. Dr. JAMES R. EDWARDS, M. D., Pathologist, performed an autopsy on June 14, 1972, and established cause of death in preliminary findings as severe heart disease.

WADDELL was a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party for a short time prior to his arrest for armed robbery in High Point, North Carolina. On January 20, 1971, WADDELL was convicted of armed robbery and sentenced to 15-20 years imprisonment. WADDELL was confined to Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, following his conviction.

ONE MEMBER OF BLACK PANTHER PARTY ATTEMPTED TO
LARRY LITTLE, head of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the Black Panther Party, attempted to make WADDELL's death an issue in the black community. BPP members claimed WADDELL was in excellent health and that the prison's claim that WADDELL died of a heart attack was very questionable. LARRY LITTLE contacted American Civil Liberties Union attorneys JOSEPH H. TIEGER of Fayetteville, North Carolina, and JERRY PAUL of Durham, North Carolina, to inquire into this incident with prison authorities. Both TIEGER and PAUL have represented BPP members in the past. LITTLE talked about heading a delegation of BPP members and proceeding to Raleigh, North Carolina, to demand a hearing with the warden of Central Prison regarding the circumstances of WADDELL's death.

LITTLE then attempted to arrange a protest demonstration at North Carolina Central Prison to protest the death of WADDELL. The North Carolina Chapter of the BPP held funeral services for WADDELL in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on June 21, 1972. LARRY LITTLE was in charge of funeral services and a taped eulogy for WADDELL was delivered by BOBBY SEALE, Chairman of the BPP. Following the funeral LARRY LITTLE announced that the BPP was sponsoring a demonstration at Central Prison on Sunday, June 25, 1972, to focus attention on the death of WADDELL and conditions in the North Carolina prison. LITTLE stated the demonstration would be peaceful. LITTLE also stated GOLDEN FRINKS, Field Secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and BENJAMIN CHAVIS, Assistant Director of the North Carolina - Virginia Committee for Racial Justice would participate in the demonstration. However, both declined LITTLE's invitation and LITTLE abandoned his previous plans to sponsor a protest demonstration at North Carolina Central Prison.

H. BPP FORTIFICATIONS

On June 1, 1972, information was received that there have been no recent incidents or arrests of BPP members for carrying weapons. The BPP Chapter in Winston-Salem no longer maintains an armed guard at BPP Headquarters as they did in the past and there was no information indicating the BPP maintained any sort of weapons or explosive devices in BPP Headquarters.

On June 12, 1972, information was received that 1306-A Underwood Street was periodically used by BPP members, however, it was vacant as of that date. This residence contained no fortifications or protective devices and the BPP maintained no firearms or other weapons at this apartment.

On June 20, 1972, information was received that as of that date, 210 East Fourteenth Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was occupied by a member of the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem. As of that date this residence contained no fortifications or protective devices.

On June 12 and 26, 1972, information was received that BPP Headquarters located at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, had no fortifications or protective devices at this address. No weapons were observed in BPP Headquarters and no material was observed that could be capable of being utilized to manufacture explosive devices or incendiary devices. A member of the BPP Chapter acts as the Officer of the Day and stays in BPP Headquarters at all times; however, this duty officer is unarmed. Also, there was no indication of any escape tunnels being present in any of the above three locations.

Sources:

On September 29, 1972, information was received that the BPP presently has some rifles and pistols stored at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Other weapons are stored in houses in close proximity to BPP Headquarters. The intent of BPP is unknown as no discussions have been held regarding any specific assignments which would require the use of weapons.

The BPP recently received correspondence from the National Headquarters at Oakland, California, which instructed the local party to defend the Headquarters at all costs. The local party was admonished for allowing police officers to search the Headquarters last year and directed the locals never to allow this to happen again.

Discussions have recently been held at the BPP Headquarters at Winston-Salem regarding the possibility of instituting a firearms training program; however, there was no indication that this program would be established in the near future as no concrete proposals were made nor was there any indication that additional discussions would be held in this regard.

An unknown member of the BPP is planning to or is in the process of observing the area where the Winston-Salem Resident Agency is located and where the FBI cars are parked. This unknown member of the BPP also wishes to observe the FBI Agents who work at the Winston-Salem Resident Agency. The purpose of this planned observation is unknown.

LARRY LITTLE, leader of the BPP in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is of the opinion that in order for the party to be successful it must have the support of the black community. A show of force and firepower would not help them improve their image at this time.

I. FINANCES

The principal source of income for the North Carolina BPP chapter is through the sale of the Black Panther weekly newspaper published by the BPP. The chapter receives approximately 4-10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper each month which are sent by air freight from the printer in New York City.

The newspaper sells for 25 cents each and half of the proceeds from newspaper sales is forwarded to BPP Headquarters in Oakland, California.

The BPP also supplements its income by soliciting donations for the various programs as well as for bond money and legal defense money for its various members who have been prosecuted or are awaiting prosecution.

The BPP operates on a cash basis and a cash box is maintained at BPP Headquarters under the control of LARRY LITTLE.

Members of the BPP are unemployed and devote their full time to their BPP activities which includes extensive travel throughout North Carolina selling the BPP newspapers.

J. TRAVEL OF BPP MEMBERS

JULIUS CORNELL, Captain of Defense, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, BPP Chapter traveled to Oakland, California, on May 2, 1972. CORNELL is staying at Oakland BPP Chapter Headquarters and is apparently aiding in the BPP political campaign in that city.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

On [REDACTED] a confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past,
advised as follows:

The Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Black Panther Party (BPP) presently has some rifles and pistols stored at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Other weapons are stored in houses in close proximity to BPP Headquarters. The intent of BPP is unknown as no discussions have been held regarding any specific assignments which would require the use of weapons.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

The BPP recently received correspondence from the National Headquarters at Oakland, California, which instructed the local party to defend the Headquarters at all cost. The local party was admonished for allowing police officers to search the Headquarters last year and directed the locals never to allow this to happen again.

RE: BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Discussions have recently been held at the BPP Headquarters at Winston-Salem regarding the possibility of instituting a firearms training program; however, there was no indication that this program would be established in the near future as no concrete proposals were made nor was there any indication that additional discussions would be held in this regard.

An unknown member of the BPP is planning to/or is in the process of observing the area where the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Federal Bureau of Investigation Resident Agency is located and where the FBI automobiles are parked. This unknown member of the BPP also wishes to observe the FBI Agents who work at the Winston-Salem Resident Agency. The purpose of this planned observation is unknown. (BPP, 10-17)

The BPP wishes to continue its Survival Day Programs in the future as a means of winning over the black community. LARRY/LITTLE, leader of BPP in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is of the opinion that in order for the party to be successful it must have the support of the black community. A show of force and fire power would not help them improve their image at this time.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau, 9/20/72.

During the month of 9/72, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C. During 9/72, the BPP moved from its apartments at 1306-A Underwood Avenue and 210 East 14th Street, both Winston-Salem, N. C. In place of these two apartments, the BPP is now renting two apartments in the name of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD at 411 14th Street, Winston-Salem, N. C., which is one block from BPP headquarters.

The BPP is still behind on payment of its rent and continues to owe money to the telephone company. As a result, the telephone company will only allow a pay telephone at BPP headquarters.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During 9/72, the Party ordered or received an estimated 4,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. 10/72, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

The 4,000 copies of the BPP newspaper represent a continuing decrease in the number of BPP newspapers ordered or received by the chapter. Sources report that more than half of these newspapers were sold during the last weekend of 9/72 in various cities throughout the State of North Carolina, with almost twenty different individuals doing the selling. The success achieved during this weekend is attributed to the fact that the BPP paid everyone's expenses.

During 9/72, a second member of the "High Point 3," three members of the BPP from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges, was released on appeal bond from North Carolina State Prison, Raleigh, N. C. LARRY MEDLEY joined BRADFORD LILLEY in obtaining his temporary freedom by posting bond pending appeal of the charges against him. RANDOLPH JENNINGS is the third member who remains in North Carolina State Prison.

The month of 9/72 saw very little public activity on the part of the Winston-Salem, N. C., BPP Chapter. A Survival Day Program was planned for the weekend of 9/23-24/72, but this program did not materialize. Insufficient funds was the reason for the program not being held. However, sources report that the BPP is planning another Survival Day Program for some time during the middle of 12/72, possibly 12/17/72, to be held at Winston-Salem, N. C. The Party is anticipating giving away 5,000 bags of groceries and has given consideration to getting ANGELA DAVIS as a speaker for that day, however, it has been determined that the chapter could not afford to pay DAVIS the exorbitant fee she supposedly is asking.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers of $250 would be owed to the California headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE remains the head of the BPP Chapter and under his guidance sources report that most of the party members are making a concentrated effort toward having a successful Survival Day Program in 12/72. LITTLE has instructed that all BPP members must have a full or part-time job in order for enough money to be available for the program.

During September, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, BPP Chapter continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

During the month of September, 1972, activities of the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, BPP Chapter were relatively quiet. Another Survival Day Program was planned for the weekend of September 23-24, 1972, at Winston-Salem, but this program did not materialize as the BPP members did not receive the necessary community support to carry through with the program. A general lack of interest in the black community coupled with insufficient donations of food and money were the reasons for the failure of the September Survival Day Program.

The free clothing and free pest control programs still function on a limited basis. The free breakfast for children program is not operational; however, reports indicate the George Jackson Liberation School continues to operate each Saturday afternoon and is attended by approximately eight school age children who receive free lunches prior to class.

Sources report that along with JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., three other BPP members from Winston-Salem, North Carolina, are currently in Oakland, California, to receive training, the nature of which is not known. These three are HAVEN HENDERSON, BERNARD PATTERSON and WILLIAM McCLAIN.

Two members of the "High Point 3", BPP members who were convicted of assault with a deadly weapon and intent to kill in High Point, North Carolina, remain in North Carolina

Re Charlotte airtel to the Bureau dated 8/21/72.

During the month of August, 1972, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C. The BPP also rents two apartments in Winston-Salem, N. C., which are used as pads by BPP members. These apartments are located at 1306-A Underwood Ave. and 210 E. 14th. St., both in Winston-Salem.

Since the BPP Chapter has never settled its past due account with the telephone company, BPP members utilize a pay telephone which was installed at BPP headquarters.

[REDACTED] during August, 1972; however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

The 5,000 copies of the BPP newspaper represents a significant decrease in the number of BPP newspapers ordered or received by the BPP Chapter. Sources report that this decrease is due to the difficulties the Panthers are having in selling their newspaper throughout the State of North Carolina.

During August, 1972, the BPP Chapter continued efforts to raise an appeal bond for two of three BPP members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in North Carolina State Prison. BRADFORD LILLY, the third member of the "High Point Three" is released from North Carolina State Prison on appeal bond; however, his bond money was raised principally through the efforts of his brother, GARY LILLY, also a BPP member, who operated independently of the BPP Chapter in order to secure his brother's release.

During August, 1972, the BPP Chapter's efforts were directed towards soliciting food for a Survival Day Rally which was held on 8/27/72, on the corner of Oak and 10½ Streets, Winston-Salem, N. C., one of the poorest neighborhoods in Winston-Salem. Through personal and telephonic contact with local merchants, BPP members assembled 100 bags of groceries which were given away at the 8/27/72, rally. They also gave free sickle-cell anemia tests and encouraged voter registration at the rally. Although this number of bags of groceries is substantially fewer than the approximately 1,000 bags of groceries and several hundred pairs of children's tennis shoes, which were given away at the 7/30/72, rally, the BPP members continue to speak about similar rallies for the future in the Winston-Salem area, with a weekend during the latter part of September, 1972, mentioned as a likely date for the next such rally.

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers of $312.50 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Ave. is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase of the house.

D. OPERATIONS

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE remains in charge of the BPP Chapter and under his guidance free sickle-cell anemia tests and opportunities for voter registration were provided during the "Survival Day Programs". At this time LITTLE appears to be the undisputed head of the BPP Chapter and is apparently utilizing instruction he received at BPP Headquarters in Oakland, California, to organize these Survival Day rallies.

HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON continue to handle the finances for the Chapter. [REDACTED]

No estimate could be made of unsold newspapers or the personal expenses of the members; however, sources report newspaper sales have decreased significantly as BPP Members are finding it difficult to sell their newspaper on a regular basis. Informants report that during the month of August there was a definite downswing in the financial condition of the BPP Chapter, and this they attribute directly to the lack of success on the part of the BPP members in selling the BPP newspaper. Sources continue to report that the BPP Chapter still has numerous outstanding bills that are unpaid, and it has fallen behind in its mortgage rental payments on their headquarters building at 1333 N. Patterson Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C.

During August, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

During August, 1972, BRADFORD LILLY, one of the "High Point 3" and BPP member, was released from North Carolina State Prison on appeal bond. LILLY and two other BPP members were convicted of assault charges and his bond was arranged by his brother, GARY LILLY, who was operating independently of the BPP Chapter in order to secure his brother's release.

Under the direction of BPP Leader LARRY LITTLE, the Winston-Salem, N. C., BPP Chapter continued its efforts to promote good will throughout the Black Community with another Community Survival Program held August 27, 1972. With a turn out of one to two hundred area residents, it is noted that the rally was considerably smaller than the July 30, 1972, rally which saw approximately two thousand persons in attendance. This significantly smaller turn out can be at least partly attributable to the late notice given the Black Community by the BPP Chapter.

The August 27, 1972, rally consisted of the distribution of 100 bags of groceries free of charge, testing area residents for sickle cell anemia and providing an opportunity for voter registration. The Survival Program was held at Oak and 10½ Streets, Winston-Salem, N. C., one of the poorest neighborhoods in Winston-Salem, and the former residence of LARRY LITTLE. Funds and groceries for the rally were obtained through donations to the BPP.

The Free Clothing Program is still functioning in a somewhat sporadic manner, as is the Free Pest Control Program. However, the Free Breakfast for Children Program has not as yet resumed operation, although indications were that it would resume at the start of the school term in the fall. The George Jackson Liberation School continues to operate each Saturday afternoon and is attended by approximately eight school age children, who receive free lunches prior to class.

The BPP Chapter continues to promote its image of community service and has avoided any confrontations or displays of violence.

during 7/72; however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

During 7/72, the BPP Chapter continued efforts to raise an appeal bond for the three BPP members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in the North Carolina State Prison. BPP member GARY LILLY complained that the chapter was not doing enough to arrange bond for his brother, BRADFORD LILLY, one of the "High Point 3." GARY LILLY has been operating independently of the chapter in an effort to raise an appeal bond for his brother.

During 7/72, the BPP Chapter concentrated its efforts in soliciting food for a Survival Day Rally which was held on 7/30/72 in the parking lot of a predominantly black public housing project in Winston-Salem, N. C. This Survival Day Rally was the most ambitious project undertaken by the North Carolina Chapter to date. Through personal and telephonic contact with local merchants, BPP members were able to assemble 1,000 bags of groceries and several hundred pairs of childrens tennis shoes which were given away at the rally on 7/30/72. It is noted that the Black Panther newspaper reported that the North Carolina rally was one of four held throughout the country during 7/72, which were patterned after the original rally sponsored by the BPP earlier in Oakland, Calif. Following this rally, LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP Chapter, issued a press release stating this rally was the first of many such rallies to be held by the BPP and his group was immediately starting to work on a similar rally to be held in 9/72.

Half the price of the newspapers of $500 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE has resumed command of the BPP Chapter since his return from BPP Headquarters at Oakland, Calif. LITTLE apparently used the instruction he had received at BPP Headquarters to organize the Survival Day Rally referred to above. BPP members gave free Sickle Cell Anemia tests and conducted voter registration during above rally. These programs, however, have not been continued and LARRY LITTLE announced Sickle Cell Anemia tests and voter registration would be handled at the next rally.

HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON continue to handle finances for the chapter. [REDACTED] and all financial transactions are handled in cash or by money order.

A GEORGE JACKSON Liberation School was inaugurated for school age children to be held at 2:00 p.m. on each Saturday. Approximately eight to ten school age children have been attending this school with the inducement of receiving a free lunch prior to each class.

During the month of July, 1972, the entire BPP chapter concentrated its efforts in arranging for a community survival rally which was held on 7/30/72. This rally, under the personal direction of LARRY LITTLE, was an on-again, off-again affair until the last minute, when several local supermarkets donated sufficient food for the BPP to give away bags of groceries. As set forth above, the rally was held at the predominantly black public housing project in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, at which time approximately 1,000 bags of groceries were given away, free sickle cell anemia tests given to approximately 800 people, and approximately 500 people were registered to vote.

All available BPP members participated in this rally which LARRY LITTLE proclaimed as a huge success in view of the large turnout of people. LITTLE used this rally to announce that he plans to run for political office in the future; however, he did not specify what office he has in mind.

BPP members passed out a brochure which accused North Carolina Central Prison officials of the murder of BPP member JOSEPH WADDELL, who died in Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, on 6/13/72, of a heart attack. This brochure stated that the free bags of groceries given away at the rally on 7/30/72 were in memoriam to JOSEPH WADDELL.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

On [REDACTED] advised that the Black Panther Party (BPP), Winston-Salem, North Carolina, planned to hold a community survival rally at 4 PM on July 30, 1972 in the parking lot of the Kimberly Housing Project in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The speakers scheduled for this event were LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP in North Carolina, as well as BPP members NELSON MALLOY and Mrs. LEE FAYE MACK. Mrs. RHUDINE COVINGTON, President of the Welfare Rights Organization in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was also scheduled to speak at this rally.

CE T-1 stated that the BPP had announced that 1,000 bags of free groceries as well as free shoes and sickle cell anemia tests would be given at this rally. Voter registration would also take place at the same time.

CE T-1 stated the BPP will give away the free groceries in memory of JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, BPP member who died in North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, on June 13, 1972.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

ENCLOSURE

RE: BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

On [REDACTED] CE T-1 advised that the BPP rally at the Kimberly Housing Project in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was held at approximately 5 PM on July 30, 1972. This source estimated there were approximately 2,000 people in attendance at the rally and the BPP gave away about 1,000 bags of groceries which had been previously solicited from local merchants. During the course of the rally BPP members gave free sickle cell anemia tests to approximately 800 people and approximately 500 persons were registered to vote.

During the rally it was announced that those persons in attendance could obtain free children's tennis shoes at BPP headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, under the BPP's free clothing program.

HAZEL MAE MACK, an officer of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party, acted as emcee for this affair and introduced the following speakers:

1. LARRY LITTLE, head of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP. LITTLE talked about the oppression of black people and called for the unity of all blacks. He spoke of the death of JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, a BPP member who recently died in North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina. LITTLE told the assembled group that the BPP was now a political organization and that he intends to run for an unidentified public office in the future.

2. Reverend MOSES SMALL, pastor of a local Baptist church and a candidate for Winston-Salem City-County School Board. Reverend SMALL compared the BPP's efforts in feeding the poor to that of JESUS feeding the multitudes. He talked about the new image of the BPP and how the BPP was now a political organization.

RE: BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

3. Mrs. LEE FAYE MACK, a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party. Mrs. MACK informed the assembled group that the BPP was no longer a militant group and had great plans to increase their political activity, including BPP members running for various political offices.

4. Mrs. RHUDINE COVINGTON, President of the Welfare Rights Organization in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Mrs. COVINGTON talked about the welfare problems of poor blacks and the inequities in the welfare system. Mrs. COVINGTON praised the BPP for their efforts to help poor black people.

5. CHARLES ZOLLICOFFER who identified himself as a student at Winston-Salem State University, which is a predominantly black university located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. ZOLLICOFFER talked about the BPP and the need for better education which would help the BPP in solving problems facing black people.

CE T-1 stated that none of the above speakers made any comments regarding confrontations with the police and followed the opening line of LARRY LITTLE about working within the political system. There were no weapons in evidence among the BPP members present and the gathering was very peaceful. The crowd dispersed at approximately 8 PM after the supply of free food had been exhausted.

On July 31, 1972, CE T-2 advised that he had attended the BPP rally on Sunday, July 30, 1972, at the Kimberly Housing Project. This source stated the people in attendance appeared to be principally interested in the free food being given away and he heard no one voicing any special approval of the BPP or its objectives.

CE T-2 stated that the rally had almost been canceled several days earlier due to lack of support and failure of the BPP to obtain any free food to be given away. Several small businesses made donations, however, which enabled the BPP to assemble approximately 1,000 bags of groceries to be given away.

RE: BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

This source advised that LARRY LITTLE commented that he was very pleased with the Sunday rally and he hoped the BPP in Winston-Salem would be able to hold a similar rally at some future date.

 EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 6/20/72.

During the month of June, 1972, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, North Carolina, continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The BPP chapter also rents an apartment at 1306-A Underwood Avenue, and an apartment at 210 East Fourteenth Street, both in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, which are used periodically by BPP members.

The BPP has not paid their past due telephone bill of $219, which led to the removal of the telephone located at BPP headquarters. The telephone company installed a pay telephone at BPP headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, telephone number 727-9652, which is the number now being used by BPP members.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During June, 1972, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL MC DONALD, Distribution Manager. [REDACTED] during May, 1972; however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

During June, 1972, the BPP chapter continued its efforts to solicit donations in order to raise an appeal bond for the three BPP members from High Point, North Carolina who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in the North Carolina State Prison. The BPP chapter suspended their free breakfast for children program during June, 1972, when schools were closed for the summer. The BPP chapter, however, periodically operates a day care center at BPP headquarters principally for children of BPP members who are fed at headquarters. For this reason, the BPP chapter continues to solicit cash and food donations under the guise of collecting for the free breakfast for children program.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers of $625 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East Fourteenth Street under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40 per month and telephone service has been obtained for $9 per month.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE returned from BPP Headquarters in Oakland, California, where he had been since January, 1972.

LITTLE immediately assumed command of the BPP chapter and announced that the North Carolina chapter would launch a new series of "survival programs." Due to lack of finances, however, no additional programs have been started to date; however, the chapter is attempting to inaugurate a free ambulance program and a Sickle Cell Anemia testing program, coupled with a voter registration drive. The chapter has been unsuccessful in obtaining a vehicle to use as an ambulance, and no one has been approved to handle Sickle Cell Anemia testing. HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON continue to handle finances for the chapter. [REDACTED] all financial transactions are handled in cash or by money order.

No estimate could be made of unsold newspapers or the personal expenses of the members; however, sources report newspaper sales have improved since BPP members have been traveling throughout the state selling papers. Informants report that the group has improved its financial condition and LARRY LITTLE attributes this to the improved image of community service on the part of the BPP. Sources report, however, the BPP still has numerous outstanding unpaid bills.

During May, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program ceased on 6/5/72. However, MARY McDONALD, who heads the program, announced they would resume operation when school starts in the fall.

LARRY LITTLE held a press conference on 6/14/72 and announced that he had attended a number of survival conferences at BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California, during the past six months and had observed the advanced programs for community aid that the BPP is developing. LITTLE stated the North Carolina chapter of the BPP will expand their community survival programs and that beginning soon the BPP chapter would undertake voter registration and conduct tests for sickle cell anemia. LITTLE did not give any specific date for this proposed activity.

JOSEPH E. WADDELL, former member of the High Point group of the BPP, died in Central Prison, Raleigh, N. C., on 6/13/72, of a heart attack. WADDELL was afforded a BPP funeral in Winston-Salem, N. C., on 6/21/72. Services were directed by LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter; and a taped eulogy by BOBBY SEALE was played at the funeral. LITTLE attempted to organize a protest demonstration at Central Prison, Raleigh, following WADDELL's death and funeral; however, the demonstration never materialized due to lack of support.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

Headquarters for the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP is located at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The BPP Chapter also maintains apartments at 1306-A Underwood Street and 210 East Fourteenth Street, both in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The latter two apartments are periodically used by BPP members as residences.

On June 1, 1972, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised there have been no recent incidents or arrests of BPP members for carrying weapons. He stated the BPP Chapter in Winston-Salem no longer maintains an armed guard at BPP Headquarters as they did in the past and he had no information indicating the BPP maintained any sort of weapons or explosive devices in BPP Headquarters.

On June 12, 1972, CE T-1 advised that 1306-A Underwood Street was periodically used by BPP members, however, it was vacant as of that date. This source stated this residence contained no fortifications or protective devices and the BPP maintained no firearms or other weapons at this apartment.

On [REDACTED] CE T-1 advised that as of that date, 210 East Fourteenth Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was occupied by a member of the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem. This source stated that as of that date this residence contained no fortifications or protective devices. This source reported seeing no firearms or weapons of any sort at that location.

[REDACTED] 1972, CE T-1 advised that [REDACTED] BPP Headquarters located at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, determined there were no fortifications or protective devices at this address. This source reported on these dates that no weapons [REDACTED] in BPP Headquarters and no material [REDACTED] that could be capable of being utilized to manufacture explosive devices or incendiary devices. CE T-1 reported on [REDACTED] that a member of the BPP Chapter acts as the Officer of the Day and stays in BPP Headquarters at all times; however, this duty officer is unarmed. CE T-1 also advised there was no indication of any escape tunnels being present in any of the above three locations.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

On June 19, 1972, Mr. [REDACTED] North Carolina Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, advised JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, Negro male, born May 27, 1950, Forsyth County, North Carolina, FBI number 425-683 H, died June 13, 1972 in Central Prison. Dr. R. PAGE HUDSON, Chief Medical Examiner for the State of North Carolina, advised that WADDELL apparently died of severe heart disease. WADDELL's body was moved from Central Prison to Wake Memorial Hospital, in Raleigh, North Carolina, where an autopsy was performed. Dr. JAMES R. EDWARDS, M.D., Pathologist, performed an autopsy on June 14, 1972, and established cause of death in preliminary findings as severe heart disease.

CE T-1 identified WADDELL as a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the Black Panther Party for a short time prior to his arrest for armed robbery in High Point, North Carolina. On January 20, 1971, WADDELL was convicted of armed robbery and sentenced to 15-20 years imprisonment. WADDELL was confined to Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, following his conviction.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

CE T-1 advised on [REDACTED] that LARRY LITTLE, head of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the Black Panther Party was attempting to make WADDELL's death an issue in the Black community. This source reported BPP members claim WADDELL was in excellent health and that the prison's claim that WADDELL died of a heart attack was very questionable. LARRY LITTLE contacted American Civil Liberties Union attorneys JOSEPH H. TIEGER of Fayetteville, North Carolina, and JERRY PAUL of Durham, North Carolina, to inquire into this incident with prison authorities. Both TIEGER and PAUL have represented BPP members in the past. CE T-1 reported that LITTLE talked about heading a delegation of BPP members and proceeding to Raleigh, North Carolina to demand a hearing with the warden of Central Prison regarding the circumstances of WADDELL's death. This source reported LITTLE had not finalized any plans in this regard as of that date.

On [REDACTED], CE T-1 advised that LITTLE was attempting to arrange a protest demonstration at North Carolina Central Prison to protest the death of WADDELL. This source reported the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP held funeral services for WADDELL in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on June 21, 1972. LARRY LITTLE was in charge of funeral services and a taped eulogy for WADDELL was delivered by BOBBY SEALE, Chairman of the BPP. Following the funeral LARRY LITTLE announced that the BPP was sponsoring a demonstration at Central Prison on Sunday, June 25, 1972, to focus attention on the death of WADDELL and conditions in the North Carolina prison. LITTLE stated the demonstration would be peaceful. LITTLE also stated GOLDEN FRINKS, Field Secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and BENJAMIN CHAVIS, Assistant Director of the North Carolina - Virginia Committee for Racial Justice would participate in the demonstration. According to CE T-1, however, both declined LITTLE's invitation. This source stated LITTLE had apparently abandoned his previous plans to sponsor a protest demonstration at North Carolina Central Prison.

EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau, dated 5/19/72.

During the month of May, 1972, the Black Panther Party (BPP) chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C. BPP members also continue to use an apartment at 1306-A Underwood Avenue and an apartment at 210 E. 14th Street, both in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Telephone 724-6249 which is located at 210 East 14th Street which has been utilized by the BPP chapter in the past, was disconnected during May, 1972, [REDACTED]

The telephone company refused to install a telephone at BPP Headquarters in view of the previous unpaid bill. Accordingly, BPP members applied for a pay telephone which was installed at panther headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue on 6/8/72. This pay telephone has telephone number 727-9652.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During May, 1972, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. [REDACTED] during May, 1972, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

During May, 1972, the BPP chapter continued its efforts to solicit donations in order to raise an appeal bond for the three BPP members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in the North Carolina State Prison. The BPP chapter continues to solicit funds for their Free Breakfast for Children Program which operated each week day morning during May, 1972. The Free Breakfast for Children Program was scheduled to terminate in early June, 1972 with the closing of school. Sources state the BPP chapter continues to receive small cash donations which have been sufficient to purchase food for the Free Breakfast for Children Program as well as feed the BPP members.

On 5/25/72, the BPP sponsored a dance at the Golden Stag Club, Liberty Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Tickets were sold at $2.50 each to raise money for the so-called survival programs and the dance was labeled as a benefit dance for political prisoners. Sources report turnout was light for the dance, however, BPP members were able to make a small undetermined amount of profit.

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers of $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the

No estimate could be made of unsold newspapers or the personal expenses of the members; however, sources report newspaper sales have improved since BPP members have been traveling throughout the state selling papers. Informants report that the group has improved its financial condition and NELSON MALLOY attributes this to the improved image of community service on the part of the BPP. Sources report, however, the BPP still has numerous outstanding unpaid bills.

Re San Francisco letter to Bureau, dated 6/5/72.

Referenced San Francisco letter sets forth information from [redacted] that [redacted] from Winston-Salem, N. C. was in touch with [redacted] BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California. [redacted] reported to [redacted] that JOSEPH WADDELL died in Central Prison at Raleigh, N. C. under mysterious circumstances. [redacted] requested permission from [redacted] to use the paper money to help pay expenses of traveling to Raleigh, N. C. to look into the death of WADDELL.

JOSEPH IRWIN WADDELL, male Negro, born 5/27/50, Forsythe County, N. C., FBI # 425683H, died 6/13/72 in Central Prison, Raleigh, N. C. Dr. R. PAGE HUDSON, Chief Medical Examiner for the State of North Carolina, advised that WADDELL apparently died of severe heart disease. WADDELL's body was moved to Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh, N. C., where an autopsy was to be performed.

WADDELL was a member of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP for a short time prior to his arrest for Armed Robbery in High Point, N. C. On 1/20/71, WADDELL was convicted of Armed Robbery and sentenced to 15 to 20 years imprisonment. He has been confined at Central Prison in Raleigh, N. C. since his conviction.

[REDACTED] advised on 6/19/72 that LARRY LITTLE, Head of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the BPP, was attempting to make WADDELL's death an issue in the Black Community. This source reported BPP members claimed WADDELL was in excellent health and that the prison's claim that WADDELL died of a heart attack was very questionable. LARRY LITTLE contacted American Civil Liberties Union attorneys JOSEPH H. TIEGER of Fayetteville, N. C. and JERRY PAUL of Durham, N. C., to inquire into this incident with prison authorities. Both TIEGER and PAUL have represented BPP members in the past. [REDACTED] also advised that LARRY LITTLE is talking about heading a delegation of several BPP members and proceeding to Raleigh, N. C. to demand a hearing with the warden of Central Prison regarding the circumstances of WADDELL's death. No plans have been finalized in this regard.

Appropriate authorities at Central Prison, Raleigh, N. C., have been alerted regarding possible contact from BPP members.

The Bureau will be promptly advised in the event there is any further action taken in this regard.

During May, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program continued to function during May, 1972, with increased local community support. BPP members announced this program would operate until the close of school, 6/5/72. With increased donations, MARY MC DONALD who heads the program announced they were able to feed between fifteen and twenty children daily during the month of May, 1972.

RUSSELL MC DONALD took over the Free Pest Control Program during May, 1972, and continued its operation within the black community surrounding BPP Headquarters.

During May, 1972, the Winston-Salem Chapter of BPP became more active in local politics and actively supported Congresswoman SHIRLEY CHISHOLM for President. NELSON MALLOY and HAZEL MACK both BPP officers ran for positions on the Democratic Party Precinct Committee. HAZEL MACK was elected to the committee, however, MALLOY was disqualified because he had not been registered in that precinct for the required thirty days prior to the election.

[REDACTED] TO [REDACTED] is from the North Carolina Chapter and is calling to report the death of brother JOSEPH WADDELL (PH) who was serving time in Central Prison in Raleigh, North Carolina. [REDACTED] says that WADDELL has been in jail since 9/7/72 and been in maximum security for the last year. He died under mysterious circumstances and the prison won't tell them any details. Lawyers will start work trying to find out tomorrow (this death occurred tonight) and [REDACTED] wants full details to the ministry as soon as possible. WADDELL was described by [REDACTED] as a real revolutionary leader and force in the prison and that is why he was in solitary. [REDACTED] also wants permission to use the paper money to help pay some of the expenses of people moving out here to Central. That will be OK but write a report on it and only use the money for plane fares.

 EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to the Bureau dated 4/19/72.

During the month of April, 1972, The Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N.C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C. BPP members also continue to use an apartment at 1306-A Underwood Avenue and an apartment at 210 E. 14th Street, both in Winston-Salem, N. C. Current telephone service for the Winston-Salem group is located at 210 E. 14th Street, telephone number 724-6249. The Redevelopment Commission of Winston-Salem, N. C., has purchased the property at 210 E. 14th Street and plans to also purchase the property which includes the apartment house located at 1306-A Underwood Avenue. This property will evidently be cleared; however, the tenants including the BPP members continue to occupy the above apartment houses.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During April, 1972, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. [REDACTED] during April, 1972, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

During April, 1972, The BPP Chapter continued its efforts to solicit donations in order to raise an appeal bond for the three BPP Members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in the North Carolina State Prison. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit funds for their Free Breakfast for Children Program which operated each weekday morning during April, 1972. The BPP Chapter has sufficiently improved its image in the neighborhood and is now receiving regular small cash donations for their breakfast program in the area. Sources state sufficient donations of an undetermined amount were received to allow the BPP members to have sufficient food for the children as well as themselves without having to solicit food from local merchants. The BPP Chapter renewed its free clothing program and was able to solicit sufficient clothing to give away free clothes at BPP Headquarters on 4/23/72.

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875.00 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20.00 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100.00 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East 14th Street under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40.00 per month and telephone service has been obtained for $9.00 per month.

[REDACTED] and all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money orders.

No estimate could be made of unsold newspapers or the personal expenses of the members; however, sources report newspaper sales have improved since BPP members have been traveling throughout the state selling papers. Informants report that the group has improved its financial condition and NELSON MALLOY attributes this to the improved image of community service on the part of The BPP. Sources report, however, the BPP still has numerous outstanding unpaid bills.

Re San Francisco letters to Bureau, 5/4/72.

Referenced San Francisco letter sets forth information from [REDACTED] regarding the arrival of [REDACTED] on Flight 29 from Winston-Salem, N.C. Referenced San Francisco letter of the same date advised that [REDACTED] placed a collect call to Mr. [REDACTED] at 919-[REDACTED] and was informed that Mr. [REDACTED] was not there. For information of the Bureau and San Francisco, [REDACTED] is in Category II of ADOR. [REDACTED] has the title of [REDACTED] for the N. C. Chapter of the BPP at Winston-Salem, N.C., and is an active member of the BPP. [REDACTED] commonly uses the nickname [REDACTED] and the information regarding his collect call to himself indicates use of a free long distance telephone call to notify BPP headquarters in Winston-Salem, N.C., that he had arrived at BPP headquarters in Oakland, California. For the information of San Francisco, LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N.C., who has been in Oakland, California, since January, 1972, is one of three BPP members currently awaiting trial in Winston-Salem, N.C. on charges stemming from the theft of a truck load of meat. JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER are also awaiting trial on the same charges. As previously advised, the U. C. Supreme Court recently reversed a lower court ruling which had quashed the indictments against LITTLE, CORNELL, and FULLER. All three have been ordered to stand trial; however, a trial date has not been fixed.

During April, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N.C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of the BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program is the one community service program which continues to receive support from the local community. This program is the vehicle used by the BPP chapter to solicit donations. Lack of food, and limited funds restrict the program, however, this program under the direction of MARY MC DONALD was able to feed approximately 10-12 children daily during the month of 4/72. This program also continues to be a principal source of food for the BPP members residing at BPP Headquarters.

The Free Pest Control Program under the direction of GRADY FULLER continues to operate in the Black neighborhood. FULLER operates this program principally alone through the use of a hand sprayer and insecticide donated by local merchant.

During 4/72, the N.C. Supreme Court reversed a prior lower court ruling which squashed the indictment of BPP leaders, LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER. All three were allowed to continue free on bond and no date has been fixed as yet for their trial. BPP members have been conferring with defense attorneys in anticipation of ~~an~~ early trial date.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau 3/21/72.

During the month of March, 1972, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C. BPP members also continued to use an apartment at 1306-A Underwood Ave., and an apartment at 210 East 14th St., both in Winston-Salem, N. C. Current telephone service for the Winston-Salem group is located at 210 East 14th St., telephone 724-6249. The High Point group of the BPP moved out of their apartment located at 400-A Loflin St., High Point, N. C., because of insufficient funds to pay the back rent. Members formerly residing in High Point moved to BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem, N. C. The Redevelopment Commission of Winston-Salem, N. C., has purchased the property at 210 E. 14th St., and plans to purchase the property at 1306-A Underwood Ave. Under Agency rules, BPP members residing at these two locations will be entitled to moving expenses and possibly future rent subsidies from the Redevelopment Commission.

via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager, [REDACTED] during March, 1972, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders.

During March, 1972, the BPP Chapter continued its efforts to solicit donations in order to raise an appeal bond for the three BPP members from High Point, N. C., who were convicted on assault charges and who are currently confined in the North Carolina State Prison. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit funds for their Free Breakfast for Children Program which operates intermittently. Dr. RAY BUTLER, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, has promised his church would donate $315 for the Free Breakfast for Children Program, however, this money has not been made available to date. The BPP Chapter launched a Free Clothing Program on 3/18/72, at BPP Headquarters, however, the supply of clothing was exhausted the first day. BPP members have been unable to solicit sufficient clothing to continue this program to date.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East 14th St. under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40 per month and telephone service has been obtained for $9 per month.

Re Charlotte teletype to Bureau dated 9/27/71.

As previously advised in referenced airtel, on 9/27/71, Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG, Forsyth County Superior Court, granted motions of defense attorneys and quashed outstanding indictments against BPP leaders LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER. Judge LONG's ruling resulted from defense's claim that jury lists for Forsyth County jury members were improperly drawn as they did not contain either eighteen-year-olds or an appropriate percentage of blacks.

Judge LONG's ruling barred scheduled trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER, who had been indicted on charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck and the subsequent shoot out with police officers at BPP Headquarters at the time of their arrests. GRADY FULLER was indicted on two counts of assault on police officers and one count of theft of the truck load of meat. LARRY LITTLE and JULIUS CORNELL were each charged with being an accessory after the fact of the meat theft.

Mr. YEAGER stated barring further appeal, LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER would again be scheduled for trial on the previous charges. Mr. YEAGER pointed out, however, he anticipates defense attorneys for the three BPP members will appeal ruling to the United States Supreme Court. New trial date for the three BPP members has not been fixed as yet. Charlotte will follow with solicitor's office and advise results of further prosecution.

During March, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N.C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

In an intensified effort to increase community support, the BPP Chapter issued a pamphlet announcing the following programs:

Free Breakfast for Children Program
Monday - Friday, 6:30 - 8:30 AM

Free Pest Control Program

Free Clothing Program

George Jackson Liberation School for school age children.

The Free Breakfast for Children Program, under the direction of MARY MC DONALD was able to feed approximately 10-12 children daily during the month of 3/72. Lack of food and funds limited the program and MC DONALD continues to insist the program will have to be dropped unless additional support can be obtained.

The Free Pest Control Program, under the direction of GRADY FULLER, continues to operate in the Black neighborhood and residents have been urged to sign up at BPP Headquarters to have their houses sprayed.

The Free Clothing Program was launched on 3/18/72, at BPP Headquarters. This program, under the direction of BEATRICE FULTON, had solicited new and used clothing which was given away on a first-come first-serve basis on 3/18/72. The supply of clothing was exhausted the first day, however, and FULTON expressed the opinion that it was questionable if the Free Clothing Program would continue.

The George Jackson Liberation School for School Age Children was launched in 3/72, at BPP Headquarters, however, lack of participants and direction by BPP members resulted in the prompt cancellation of this program.

During 3/72, the BPP Chapter was forced to close their location at 400A Loflin St., High Point, N.C. due to lack of funds to pay the back rent. The 2 or 3 members residing in High Point were moved to BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem. The two apartments rented by the BPP in Winston-Salem, N.C. are located on property that has been purchased by the Urban Renewal Project and are slated to be torn down. The BPP Chapter is undecided about what action to take and continue to utilize these apartments on a temporary basis.

In an effort to boost the sagging moral of the BPP Chapter "Mustang Sally", a well-known local female impersonator, arranged a party at BPP Headquarters on 3/4/72. Prior to the party, "Mustang Sally" made improper advances to a Winston-Salem PD Vice-Squad officer and was arrested. "Sally's" associates carried on in the best tradition and put on an exhibition at BPP Headquarters labeled as a "Belly and Heat Party." Four female impersonators offered a concoction of heroin and spanish fly to those in attendance and to the participants. After consuming this mixture they stripped and did a "belly dance" followed by a homosexual orgy in

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

The above headquarters is located in a two story frame house situated in a predominantly black residential neighborhood. The house was purchased under a lease-purchase agreement in the name of HAZEL LEE MACK and LEE FAYE MACK with an initial downpayment of $500 and monthly rent of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house at the end of 5 years. The total purchase price for the house was $8,500.

On March 8, 1972, HAZEL MACK contacted the United States Post Office, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and requested Post Office Box 2019, be changed from the name of DAVID CATO to her name. HAZEL MACK changed the name of the firm under which the Post Office box is rented from the National Committee to Combat Fascism to the BPP. MACK advised the Post Office that the office address for the BPP was 1333 North Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Telephone Number 724-6249.

D. COMMUNITY ACTIVITY

1. Free Programs

a. Free breakfast for children program

This program has been operated sporadically since September, 1971, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The program is operated under the direction of MARY MC DONALD and feeds an average of 8 to 10 children each day when operating. This program is used as a basis for soliciting donations from local merchants and achieving local support from the community.

b. Free pest control program

During January, 1972, the BPP chapter acquired a hand spray gun which is utilized for spraying houses in the neighborhood. Persons desiring their house to be sprayed for pests must sign up at BPP Headquarters. This program has been administered by GRADY FULLER who has conducted a door-to-door campaign soliciting business.

c. Free clothing program

This program was launched under the direction of BPP member BEATRICE FULTON and was scheduled for its first distribution of free clothing on March 18, 1972. FULTON and GRADY FULLER have been contacting residents and merchants soliciting donations of new and used clothes.

2. Training Programs

Periodic training sessions and educational classes are held at BPP Headquarters on Wednesday evenings.

These classes are open to prospective members as well as regular members and class discussions are usually directed by one of the officers of the chapter.

A liberation school for school-age children was undertaken on Saturday, March 4, 1972, in which free food was offered to enhance attendance. Lack of food and poor attendance resulted in cancellation of this program.

E. PUBLIC APPEARANCES

1. Solidarity Rally For High Point Four, High Point, North Carolina, July 25, 1971

On July 24, 1971, an article appeared in the "High Point Enterprise", High Point, North Carolina, a daily newspaper announcing plans for a solidarity rally for the High Point Four to be held at 2 P.M., July 25, 1971, at Washington Terrace Park, High Point, North Carolina. LARRY LITTLE is quoted as predicting 2,000 persons would attend the High Point rally. Its purpose was to gain moral and financial support for the High Point Four identified as LARRY MEDLEY, GEORGE DE WITT, RANDOLPH JENNINGS and BRADFORD LILLY, who were arrested February 10, 1971, at BPP Headquarters, 612 Holly Street, High Point, North Carolina. All four were arrested following a shoot out with police in which one officer was seriously wounded.

The rally was held on July 25, 1971, with approximately 200 people in attendance. LARRY LITTLE gave the welcoming address and JULIUS CORNEIL acted as master of ceremonies and introduced GOLDEN FRINKS of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the principal speaker for the occasion.

2. Haymarket Square Rally

On August 11, 1971, a rally was held at the Haymarket Square Coffeehouse, 545 Hay Street, Fayetteville, North Carolina. This coffeehouse is a gathering place for anti-war protestors. LITTLE appeared at this rally and spoke before the audience of approximately 20 people. LITTLE spoke regarding the history and mission of the BPP and requested support of those in attendance for the BPP.

F. ARREST AND TRIALS OF BPP MEMBERS

On September 20, 1971, [REDACTED] Superior Court Solicitor, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, advised that the trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL and GRADY FULLER commenced that date in Forsyth County Superior Court. LITTLE, CORNELL, and FULLER were indicted by the Forsyth County Grand Jury on various theft charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck which was located at BPP Headquarters in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. A shoot out with police ensued leading to the arrest of the above three BPP members.

Trial in this matter started May, 1971, however, was continued due to numerous defense motions.

On September 27, 1971, [REDACTED] advised that Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG quashed the indictments against LITTLE, CORNELL, and FULLER following a defense motion that the Forsyth County Jury Lists was improperly drawn. [REDACTED] stated it was improbable that LITTLE, CORNELL and FULLER would be re-indicted on this charge.

On February 10, 1971, GEORGE DE WITT, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, BRADFORD LILLEY, and LARRY MEDLEY were arrested that date at 612 Hulda Street, High Point, North Carolina, following a shoot out with High Point Police. Police Officers were attempting to serve an eviction notice on the occupants of 612 Hulda Street, High Point, North Carolina, when the shooting occurred. Police Lieutenant SHAW COOKE of the High Point, North Carolina, Police Department, was critically wounded by a bullet fired from a high-powered rifle during the shoot out. Two other police officers were also struck by bullets during the shooting, however, they were uninjured as both were wearing bullet proof vests. As a result of the shoot out, DE WITT, JENNINGS, LILLEY, and MEDLEY were charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and assault on a police officer with firearm.

County Solicitor [REDACTED], High Point, North Carolina, advised on January 19, 1972, that the trial of the four men was scheduled to commence in Guilford County Superior Court, High Point, North Carolina, on January 24, 1972. He pointed out that trial of the four was initially scheduled for the September, 1971, term of Superior Court, however, pre-trial motions by the defense delayed the trial until January 24, 1972. Solicitor [REDACTED] advised that the Grand Jury had returned a true bill of indictment charging each of the four with one count of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and two counts of assault with a firearm on a police officer.

On February 4, 1972, Solicitor [REDACTED] advised that after a two week trial, the case went to the jury on February 3, 1972. On February 4, 1972, the jury returned a verdict of guilty against LARRY MEDLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY, and RANDOLPH JENNINGS on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, and not guilty on the charge of assault with a firearm on police officer. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on all charges

On same date, Superior Court Judge J. GEORGE DE WITT. On same date, Superior Court Judge J. WILLIAM COPELAND ordered DE WITT released. Judge COPELAND sentenced LILLEY, LILLEY and JENNINGS to not less than seven nor more than ten years in prison with the stipulation that time spent in jail before the trial should be credited toward these sentences. Defense attorneys immediately filed notice of appeal and an appeal bond of $7,000 was set for each of the three convicted.

6. FINANCES

The principal source of income for the North Carolina BPP chapter is through the sale of the Black Panther weekly newspaper published by the BPP. The chapter receives approximately 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper each week which are sent by air freight from the printer in New York City.

The newspaper sells for 25 cents each and half of the proceeds from newspaper sales is forwarded to BPP Headquarters in Oakland, California.

The BPP also supplements its income by soliciting donations for its various programs as well as for bond money and legal defense money for its various members who have been prosecuted or are awaiting prosecution.

The BPP operates on a cash basis and a cash box is maintained at BPP Headquarters under the control of LARRY LITTLE or MALCOLM MALJOY.

Members of the BPP are unemployed and devote their full time to BPP activities which includes extensive travel throughout North Carolina selling the BPP newspapers.

7. RECORD OF NEW MEMBERS

On August 7, 1971, GARY DARNELL LILLEY traveled to BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California, for training as a representative of the North Carolina chapter of the BPP. LILLEY returned from California on November 3, 1971, and on November 7, 1971, LILLEY gave a talk before BPP members at BPP Headquarters regarding information he had learned in California.

During January, 1972, LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Head of the BPP chapter, went to BPP Headquarters, Oakland, California, for an indefinite period of training. LITTLE remains in California as of the date of this report.

All BPP members are expected to sell copies of the BPP newspapers and travel to the major cities in North Carolina to sell papers and solicit donations for the various BPP programs.

Sources report that during February, 1972, the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem made a concerted effort to solicit donations under the guise of raising an appeal bond for the three members of the High Point Four" who were convicted and being held in lieu of bond. Sources report that only approximately $300 was raised for this purpose during February, 1972. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food for their Free Breakfast for Children Program and used clothing for their Free Clothing Program which they are trying to inaugurate. Sources report that the North Carolina BPP Chapter is in arrears in payment for newspaper money owed to the California Headquarters and has made several requests to California Headquarters for financial assistance with negative results.

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East 14th St. under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40 per month and telephone service has been obtained for $9 per month.

The BPP group at High Point, N. C., rents an apartment at 400-A Loflin St., High Point, N. C., at a monthly rental of $40.

ARRESTS AND CONVICTIONS

After a two-week trial in Guilford County Superior Court which began on 1/24/72, the jury returned a verdict of guilty on 2/4/72 against LARRY MEDLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY and RANDOLPH JENNINGS, on a charge of Assault With a Deadly Weapon with Intent to Kill. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on all charges against GEORGE DeWITT. These four, frequently referred to as "The High Point 4", were members of the High Point group of the BPP, and were arrested on 2/10/71, at BPP headquarters following a shoot-out with police when High Point police officers attempted to serve an eviction notice. MEOLEY, LILLEY and JENNINGS have filed notice of appeal and are currently being held in lieu of an appeal bond of $7,000 each.

During February, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program was operated sporadically during February, 1971, due to lack of funds. Most of the food designated for the program was consumed by BPP members themselves; however, MARY McOONALO, assisted by neighborhood women volunteers, was able to feed approximately eight (8) children approximately two or three times a week with the meager food available.

The BPP Chapter expressed mixed emotions of jubilation over the acquittal of GEORGE DeWITT in Guilford County Superior Court and disappointment over the conviction of the other three High Point members, LARRY MEOLEY, BRADFORD LILLEY and RANDOLPH JENNINGS. Efforts have been increased to raise bail bond money in order that these three BPP members may be released on appeal bond; however, sources report very little money has been collected to date. Several of the BPP members have expressed dissatisfaction with the leadership of NELSON MALLOY and have suggested an appeal be sent to BPP Headquarters for the immediate return of LARRY LITTLE. No action has been taken in this regard to date.

The BPP chapter has also been attempting to set up a Free Health Clinic in Winston-Salem, N. C., and the members have talked to several property owners in the black neighborhood in the vicinity of the BPP Headquarters. No apparent progress has been made regarding opening a Health Center since the chapter has been unable to raise sufficient funds.

During January, 1972, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program which began on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, continues to feed approximately eight to ten children each day. This program is headed by MARY McDONALD, wife of RUSSELL McDONALD. Mrs. McDONALD is assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers. The Program is in continuous difficulty, however, as the BPP members have been eating most of the food donated for the program, leaving very little for the children.

Trial of the "High Point Four", GEORGE DEWITT, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, BRADFORD LILLEY, and LARRY MEDLEY, commenced in High Point on 1/24/72. After disposing of numerous motions by the defense, a jury was selected on 1/28/72, and the prosecution commenced presenting its case. It is anticipated that the trial will last for several weeks. The BPP Chapter has been busy attempting to drum up support for the defendants and encourage attendance at the trial which has been very small to date. NELSON MALLOY, Acting Head of the group, has urged all BPP members to attend the trial, however, High Point police advise the small group in daily attendance is mostly from the

For the information of the Bureau and San Francisco, the High Point group of the BPP utilizes an apartment located at 400 A Loflin Street, High Point, N. C., the residence of RICKIE HOOPER, LARRY MEDLEY, and HAVEN HENDERSON with her baby also reside at this address.

On 2/2/72, High Point, N. C., PD, advised that his department holds an Armed Robbery warrant for one who formerly resided on Loflin Street in High Point, N. C. stated his department received information that had been observed going in and out of the apartment at 400 A Loflin Street. Accordingly, officers attempted to locate at this address on 1/4/72, and 1/6/72.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 12/20/71.

During the month of December, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The apartment of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, 1306A Underwood Avenue and an apartment rented under the name of RICKIE HOOPER located at 210 East 14th Street are also utilized by BPP members. The BPP headquarters remains without direct telephone service since members have failed to raise the deposit required by the telephone company because of past overdue bills. RICKIE HOOPER obtained telephone service at 210 East 14th Street, telephone 724-6249 which is being used by LARRY DONNELL/LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, as well as other BPP members.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During December, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, during December, 1971, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. Sources report RUSSELL McDONALD and LARRY LITTLE have not been getting along; accordingly, McDONALD has not been handling distribution of the BPP Newspaper on a regular basis. DARRELL HOPKINS, a 19-year old high school student and member of the BPP Chapter has been handling BPP Newspaper sales, which has resulted in a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The Pet Milk Dairy has been donating milk on a regular basis and the Merita Bakery, which is located in a black neighborhood, has continued to donate food for this program. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food that is donated leaving very little for the children. MARY McDONALD handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program, which is operated out of BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The BPP Chapter has obtained a hand insecticide spray gun, along with a supply of insecticide and has inaugurated a free pest control program. This program is being handled by BPP member GRADY FULLER who has started going from house to house in the Negro neighborhood surrounding BPP headquarters and spraying the houses for roaches and other insects.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a mortgage rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. The chapter has also rented an apartment at 210 East 14th Street under the name of RICKIE HOOPER. This apartment is being rented for $40 per month and telephone service was obtained for $9 per month.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE continues as the overall leader with HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON handling finances. [REDACTED] all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money orders.

BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, Chairman of the BPP, spoke at Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on 11/14/71. LARRY LITTLE introduced SEALE, however, he confined his appearance to a short introductory statement. SEALE also spoke at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., on 11/15/71. LITTLE arranged for both of SEALE's appearances at the two above black colleges.

None.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that a Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program which began on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, continues to feed approximately eight to ten children each day. This program is headed by MARY McDONALD, wife of RUSSELL McDONALD. Mrs. McDONALD is assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers. The Program is in continuous difficulty, however, as the BPP members have been eating most of the food donated for the program leaving very little for the children.

BPP members expressed disappointment in the small donations collected following the speeches by BOBBY SEALE at Winston-Salem and Raleigh, N. C. A total of $173.20 in donations was collected at Winston-Salem and approximately $190 at Raleigh, N. C., in contrast to the $900 to $1000 anticipated by the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C.

Sources report there is much discontent at the Winston-Salem Chapter regarding the leadership of LARRY LITTLE. RUSSELL McDONALD and his wife, MARY McDONALD, appear to be the principal workers among the group and are reportedly upset over the lack of leadership qualities displayed by LITTLE.

LITTLE has berated BPP members for not selling enough BPP newspapers and has voiced his irritation about the failure of the group to raise sufficient money to start additional programs. LITTLE has been very outspoken about the failure to raise sufficient money to have the telephone connected at EPP Headquarters.

The local trial of four BPP members called the "High Point Four" has been postponed until after the first of the year. Two members of the "High Point Four" are still in jail and BPP members have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond them out.

There has been no confrontations by the BPP and police during the past month.

Re Bulet to Charlotte, 10/21/71, and Charlotte airtel, 11/9/71.

Referenced Bulet instructed that arrangements be made to cover all speeches by BOBBY SEALE, Chariman of the Black Panther Party (BPP), during his planned speaking tour in North Carolina. Information developed to date has established SEALE will speak at Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, N. C., on 11/14/71, and at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., on 11/15/71. Both are predominantly black colleges and Winston-Salem State University is one of five black State-supported colleges in North Carolina. Details concerning scheduled speeches have been submitted in form suitable for dissemination by referenced Charlotte airtel.

For the information of the Bureau, contact has been maintained with _____ in an effort to ascertain any other speaking arrangements made for SEALE. These contacts have determined that representatives from the BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., contacted A and T State University, Greensboro, N. C., and Shaw University, Raleigh, N. Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 11/19/71.

During the month of November, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. The apartment of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, 1306 Underwood Avenue, and a new apartment rented by RICKIE HOOPER on 11/15/71, located at 210 East 14th Street, are also utilized by BPP leaders. The BPP Headquarters is still without telephone service since members have failed to raise the deposit required by the telephone company. RICKIE HOOPER obtained telephone service at his new apartment, 210 East 14th St., which has telephone number 724-6249. This telephone is being used by LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of BPP Chapter, along with the telephone located at the residence of his mother, OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak Street, Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During November, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL McDONALD, during November, 1971, however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. Sources report RUSSELL McDONALD and LARRY LITTLE have not been getting along; accordingly, McDONALD has not been handling distribution of the BPP Newspaper on a regular basis. DARRELL HOPKINS, a 19-year old high school student and member of the BPP Chapter has been handling BPP Newspaper sales, which has resulted in a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The Pet Milk Dairy has been donating milk on a regular basis, and the Merita Bakery, which is located in a black neighborhood, has continued to donate food for this program. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food that is donated leaving very little for the children. MARY McDONALD handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program, which is operated out of BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue. She has continually complained to LARRY LITTLE about having insufficient food to feed the children and that the program will have to be discontinued unless additional donations can be obtained. RUSSELL McDONALD has suggested the BPP move its headquarters to Greenville, N. C., where he feels that they would have more community support; however, LARRY LITTLE, head of the BPP Chapter, has strongly opposed this idea and insists the chapter will remain in Winston-Salem. LITTLE has instructed BPP members to increase their efforts to sell BPP newspapers in cities outside Winston-Salem, N. C.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
CHARLOTTE DIVISION
EXTREMIST MATTERS

"The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government."

On [REDACTED] CE T-1 advised that the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP located at Winston Salem, North Carolina, had made arrangements for BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, Chairman of the BPP, to speak at Winston Salem State University, Winston Salem, North Carolina, on November 14, 1971. CE T-1 stated this speaking engagement was being arranged to raise money for the local BPP chapter as well as the national BPP organization.

On [REDACTED], CE T-1 advised that the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP had obtained a definite commitment for SEALE to speak at Winston Salem State University, and the North Carolina chapter expected to receive nine hundred dollars from the money being paid SEALE for his appearance.

On November 1, 1971, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] advised that he had received information that the [REDACTED] of the Arts in Winston Salem, North Carolina, was paying transportation expenses for BOBBY SEALE to appear at Winston Salem State University, a predominantly black college located in Winston Salem, North Carolina. [REDACTED] advised that Winston Salem State University had signed a contract for SEALE to speak at the school on November 14, 1971. [REDACTED] further advised he had no information regarding the fee being paid SEALE for his speech and no information regarding the amount of money SEALE was being allowed for transportation expenses.

On November 5, 1971, CE T-2 advised that officials at Winston Salem State University, Winston Salem, North Carolina, had signed a contract with the BPP for SEALE to make a speech at that university on November 14, 1971. Under terms of the agreement, SEALE was to receive one thousand five hundred dollars following the speech, which will be paid by check made payable to Consolidated Productions, Incorporated. CE T-2 stated payment for SEALE is being made from student activity funds at the university and no admission will be charged for students attending the speech. CE T-2 stated that the contract stipulated that there were to be no bodyguards on the stage with SEALE during the speech and there was to be no display of weapons of any sort.

On November 5, 1971, CE T-3 advised that the BPP had approached A&T University, a predominantly black college in Greensboro, North Carolina, for BOBBY SEALE to make a speech at the university. CE T-3 advised SEALE was asking one thousand eight hundred dollars for his appearance, which officials at A&T State University felt was excessive; accordingly, they declined to have SEALE appear at this university.

On November 9, 1971, CE T-4 advised that the Student Government Association of St. Augustine's College, a predominantly black college in Raleigh, North Carolina, had signed a contract for BOBBY GEORGE SEALE to speak at the college on November 15, 1971. CE T-4 advised that SEALE was scheduled to speak at 7:00 P.M. on November 15, 1971, in the Emery Health and Fine Arts Building. This source stated SEALE's speech will be open to the public and no admission will be charged. CE T-4 stated St. Augustine's College had agreed to pay SEALE one thousand dollars for his appearance, which money was to come from student activity funds. CE T-4 advised he did not know whether the fee would be paid directly to SEALE or to the BPP.

Re Bureau letter to Charlotte dated 10/21/71, and Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 10/14/71.

As set forth in referenced communications, the Black Panther Party (BPP) chapter at Winston Salem, N. C., has been attempting to arrange speaking dates at five black colleges in North Carolina for BOBBY SEALE, Chairman of the BPP.

On 11/1/71, [REDACTED] advised that the BPP had signed a contract with Winston Salem State University, Winston Salem, N. C., to utilize the school's auditorium for a speech by BOBBY SEALE on 11/14/71. [REDACTED] advised that he had been informed that the School of the Arts in Winston Salem, N. C., was paying transportation expenses for SEALE; however, [REDACTED] stated he was not aware of the fee being paid SEALE for his appearance and the amount of money being allowed for his expenses. [REDACTED] stated he would attempt to obtain additional information regarding SEALE's scheduled appearance and keep this office advised.
 Arrangements are being made to cover SEALE's scheduled speech and every effort will be made to obtain tape recordings through established sources.

On 11/27/71, [REDACTED] advised that it was learned that St. Augustine's College and Shaw University, both Negro colleges at Raleigh, N. C., were negotiating for the appearance of BOBBY SEALE to speak at Raleigh, N. C., between the period 11/3-5/71. Informant stated that SEALE is attempting to charge $1,800 for this engagement which persons at the schools feel they cannot afford. A final commitment has not been made as of this date.

Contacts with appropriate informants and sources at the additional Black colleges in North Carolina has developed no information indicating SEALE is scheduled to make a speech at any of these colleges. The Charlotte Division will maintain contact with informants and established sources regarding any other speaking arrangements possibly made for SEALE in North Carolina.
